

Highline Soccer Association (HSA) 2018 Joan and Kim Duke Scholarship Application

The Highline Soccer Association (HSA) is proud to offer five (5) scholarship awards for the 2018 calendar year to assist our graduating high school players in the pursuit of their college education. HSA Scholarship Awards are funded in part by a generous donation from Tom Clayton.

Scholarship Awards:

First place is a $1,500.00 scholarship which is awarded to the outstanding male or female applicant. In addition, designated scholarships for female players will be awarded in the amounts of $750.00 and $500.00. Similarly, male players will also be eligible for awards in the amounts of $750.00 and $500.00.

HSA Scholarship Eligibility Criteria:

To be eligible for scholarship consideration, applicants must have played soccer for any club or team in the Highline Soccer Association during their junior or senior year of high school, and they must graduate from high school at the end of the 2017-2018 school year.

"This award is very special to me. I have the privilege to watch players continue with their education knowing that HSA played a part in helping the participant achieve their goal."
